

One Voice Walk Frequently Asked Questions

What is a One Voice Walk?

- CureFest for Childhood Cancer, typically held in Washington, DC on the National Mall, will not be held in Washington this year due to COVID-19. However, in order to remain engaged with the national childhood cancer community, Arms Wide Open Childhood Cancer Foundation (AWOCCF), the owner/operator of CureFest, is asking individuals, advocates, cancer families and groups, across the US, to organize a One Voice Walk in their communities on September 26th.
- A One Voice Walk is an activity for an individual, family, or group who come together to walk in support of children with cancer and to be part of our virtual 2020 CureFest.

Who can participate in a One Voice Walk?

- Anyone who is interested in and supports the fight against Childhood Cancer can participate in a One Voice Walk. All we ask is that you first register for CureFest.

Is there an age limit for participants in a One Voice Walk?

- No, however, young children should be chaperoned by a parent or guardian.

Who can organize a One Voice Walk?

- Any individual, family, or group can plan and organize a One Voice Walk. All we ask is that you first register for CureFest.

Where should the course be located?

- A residential neighborhood with minimal traffic is the best choice. You should also explore public parks and school and college campuses. You will want to select a location that allows the use of sidewalks, a track or trails as much as possible with a minimum number of street crossings.

What time should a One Voice Walk be scheduled?

- The CureFest webcast on Facebook will stream on September 26th at 12:00 noon ET. We suggest that you schedule your walk before or after the webcast.

How will my steps be counted?

- Each person who registers for a One Voice Walk will be given an option to download a mobile app to record his or her steps. Each participant's steps will be tabulated and posted on CureFest's social media platforms on a region-by-region basis.

Should One Voice Walk photos and videos be posted to personal social media pages?

- Yes, of course, but please send them to us as well so we can give your One Voice Walk national exposure.

Frequently Asked Questions
cont'd

Can One Voice Walk t-shirts and other merchandise be ordered?

- Yes, honor beads and One Voice Walk branded t-shirts and banners will be available. Details, pricing, and ordering information will be announced closer to September 26th.

What's the best way to promote a One Voice Walk?

- Social media, email lists, and word of mouth will usually be sufficient.

Suppose I want to organize a larger, community-wide One Voice Walk?

- Please click here for more information.

 Please be sure to follow all COVID-19 rules and restrictions in place for your walk on September 26th. Please follow all pedestrian safety ordinances, including walking on a sidewalk where available and not in the road. *****